

2019 Ernest Assaly Award!

Dear Kevin,

I am tremendously pleased to inform you that Seeley Homes Ltd. has both the honour and distinction of having been selected as a candidate for Tarion's Ernest Assaly Award. This 'by invitation only' opportunity is for registered Ontario builders with an extraordinary track record and reputation.

Established in 2017, the Ernest Assaly Award recognizes one Ontario new home builder annually who has demonstrated a longstanding commitment to building quality and innovation, customer service, and community involvement. The award is named after Tarion's first Board Chair (1976 to 1988), a highly respected, multiple award-winning builder and leader in Ontario's residential construction industry.

Unlike the Homeowners' Choice Awards, where new home owners effectively determine finalists and recipients, the Ernest Assaly Award recipient will ultimately be voted on by Tarion's Board of Directors. Of the more than 5,000 registered builders in Ontario, only 81 have met our rigorous eligibility criteria for the 2019 Ernest Assaly Award.

I congratulate you once again on your candidacy, and encourage you to forward your nomination submission so that you may be considered for this significant recognition.

Sincerely,

Howard Bogach
President & CEO
